

NOW CLOSED - East Rocks Road Bridge over the Merritt to St. Jerome Church

If you use East Rocks Road to drive to St. Jerome Church from any location south of the church, the East Rocks Road bridge over the Merritt Parkway now is closed as of Monday, April 12, 2010. It will remain closed for approximately nine months. The Connecticut Department of Transportation is replacing the East Rocks Road Bridge over the Merritt Parkway. The section of East Rocks closed is between Ox Yoke Lane and Granite Drive.

You can drive an alternate route past the church and then back onto the open northern portion of East Rocks Road. You can drive to the church on West Rocks Road to Bayne Street to East Rocks, or on Grumman Avenue to Half Mile Road to East Rocks.
